ČÍM JE CO.LABS DNES

A group of about ten people are sitting on a dark, reflective floor in a room that looks like a workshop or a meeting space. They are arranged in a loose circle, some looking at each other, some looking down at papers or devices. In the background, there are shelves with various boxes, some labeled 'VICTORIA'S SECRET'. A camera on a tripod is positioned in the center of the group. The overall atmosphere is collaborative and creative.
