Programme

9:30–10:30 Workshop with schools

An opportunity to discuss the direction of study programmes, how departments operate and practical experiences of studying, all in an informal setting.

11:00–12:00 Workshop with organisations

An opportunity to connect in person with people working in the field and make contacts for future collaboration.

13:00–13:30 Culture Brno Presents: What's New

The Culture Department of the Brno City Municipality will present its latest updates and upcoming projects.

13:30–14:00 Open Forum

The Open Forum is a space for questions, ideas and inspiration from the audience.

14:30–15:30 Young Creators Showcase

What is the emerging generation's experience of culture? During the showcase, arts students and young creators will have an opportunity to present their cultural and creative projects.

16:00–17:30 Culture Without a Waiting Room: Young People Are More Than Just an Audience

Following the student presentations, Nová síť will present a programme exploring what happens when young people are not merely an audience for whom cultural institutions create programmes, but are given space to influence, organise and co-create culture themselves.

18:00–18:30 The Kitchen Revue

A student musical adaptation of a work by Bohuslav Martinů, rounding off the day with wit, energy and humour.
